‘Understanding Human Trafficking’ training

The Understanding Human Trafficking training is a free, series of five interactive online modules that offer foundational learning on trauma-informed and victim-centered approaches to human trafficking. Some of the skills offered include—

- Implementing trauma-informed approaches
- Assessing victims for comprehensive service needs
- Employing a collaborative victim service delivery model
- Identifying accurate data and research on human trafficking
- New strategies for researching and analyzing laws and policies that impact human trafficking.

Great way to meet award conditions on HT training for your staff and partner staff, especially for those newer to HT work!

Questions?

HTC Grantee FAQ's

A roundup of the most asked questions grantees have when getting started working with HTC

- How is HTC different than OVC?
- Why should I work with HTC?
- Does receiving TA support indicate that we don't know what we're doing?
- When will my TA Navigator reach out to me?
- What should I talk to my TA Navigator about?
- I'm still unsure about reporting. Who should I talk to?
- When are my policies and procedures due?
When will I learn more about this?

Remember, HTC is here for YOU!

- troubleshoot challenges to service provision in real time
- navigate and access various federal human trafficking and victim services related resources
- expand capacity to service victims of human trafficking through trauma-informed practices
- connect with subject matter experts and grantees for added support
- assess available data to further inform your work
